

Super Girl

This Canadian starlet calls both Smallville, and Vancouver, home

Wish, September 2005

Location

Emmanuelle's bright and breezy loft-style Vancouver condo.

How You Know Her

Many will recognize her as Dr. Helen Bryce, Lex Luthor's wife on Smallville, or remember her from Maxim magazine's 100 Hottest Women list in 2003. Emmanuelle also appeared in 40 days and 40 Nights and Seconhand Lions.

Home Sweet Home

A non-stop shooting schedule keeps Emmanuelle on the road most of the year. And while she maintains an apartment in L.A., she still calls Vancouver home. "I love my condo, False Creek Design Group did the work, and it has a very modern, Zen-like feel," she says. "My favourite piece is the four-post platform bed (pictured here). I call it my princess bed."

Kicking Back

Nothing beats a walk along the seawall with her toy poodles Lily and Isabelle, although down time also includes a trip to Choices Market for soy vanilla ice cream and fresh berries. Nearby Don Francesco's is her new favourite restaurant, specifically for its wild boar. "I'm a big game meat person, and it's done beautifully - tender and flavourful."

Fashion Forum

"I absolutely love Dolce & Gabbana. For some reason, it fits like a glove. I wish I could afford more of it! And I have to keep myself away from the Coach store. Why I need a new purse every month is beyond me."

Beauty Faves

Lipgloss. "Origins Once Upon a shine Sheer lip gloss in Sheer Crystal doesn't get sticky or feel like you're wearing glue on your lips."

Mascara. "Lately, it's been Bed Head Eyes Love It! black mascara."

Hair Care. "BioSilk Silk Therapy finishing product is a saving grace for people with curly hair like me."

Skin Care. "Neutrogena's Healthy Defense Daily Moisturizer SPF 30 doesn't gum up when you apply concealer over top of it."
