Originally from British Columbia, Emmanuelle Vaugier is a talented and spirited actor, who continues to shine on television and movie screens around the world. Vaugier may be best known for her popular role as Charlie Sheen's ex-fiancée Mia on the award-winning CBS comedy Two and a Half Men. For three seasons she also played Detective Jessica Angell on CSI: NY, and in 2010, Vaugier was cast alongside Piper Perabo in the crime series Covert Affairs. Vaugier continues to reprise her role as The Morrigan on the innovative series Lost Girl, and most recently booked a six episode guest role on Mistresses. A passionate animal lover, a project very close to Emmanuelle's heart is The Fluffball, which raises money for various animal charities through her annual cocktail event. A dedicated equestrian, Emmanuelle competes on a horse rescued from a situation of neglect.

Childhood friends, Emmanuelle and Dalia joined creative forces for this shoot to celebrate their shared love for fashion and animals.
